

FIRST NATIONS HEALTH AND SOCIAL SECRETARIAT OF MANITOBA

EXCITING CAREER OPPORTUNITY! Summer Student

Are you a student searching for that right summer opportunity? Are you interested in learning more about First Nations Health Research? If you answered yes to these questions, then keep reading this ad for your opportunity to support the movement of improving the Health Status of First Nations people in Manitoba.

FNHSSM is hiring summer students as part of the Research Department, where they will support a variety of projects. All students will gain valuable experience in research, presentation skills, community engagement, program coordination, and community health initiatives while contributing to work that directly supports First Nations communities in Manitoba.

What can FNHSSM offer you? Too much to list but here are some of the highlights:

- Competitive compensation package;
- Free parking and great amenities on site;
- FNHSSM is an employer that genuinely cares, we care about our employees and treat them with the upmost respect.

What are we looking for? We'll keep this brief:

- First Nations secondary or post-secondary student who will be returning to school in Fall 2026;
- Excellent communication, reading, and writing skills;
- Experience doing a literature review is an asset;
- Understanding of First Nation Data Sovereignty ;
- Understanding of First Nations history and how it relates to current health priorities;
- Willingness to learn.

Does this all sound great to you? If so, please submit your cover letter, resume and salary expectations to our Director of Human Resources at hr@fnhssm.com. If you have any questions or would like to review the job description, feel free to contact our Director of Human Resources at 204-794-4025. These positions will be open until filled; the first round of resumes will be reviewed on Friday April 24th at 4:30PM (CST).

We thank all who apply and advise that only those selected for further consideration will be contacted. Employment Equity is a factor in selection. Applicants are requested to voluntarily indicate in their covering letter if they are from any of the following groups: women, aboriginal people, visible minorities and individuals with disabilities.
